

MOB FIGHTS TO SAVE HOME.

Trice to Lynch Deputy Who Ejects Soldier's Parents.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—Reserves from four West Philadelphia police stations were called out to quell a riot in which hundreds of tenants attempted to lynch a Deputy Sheriff who had ejected Mr. and Mrs. George Glassmire. Their home had been sold by real estate agents.

Edwin Hunter, the deputy who served the writ, was saved from the mob by policemen, who held off the crowd with drawn revolvers and turned in a general riot call.

Samuel Glassmire, a son of the evicted couple, was expected home for Easter. He was wounded during the war and has been confined in the army hospital at Carlisle, Pa.

Pacific Shipyard Is Sold.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The Skinner & Eddy Shipyard No. 2, at Seattle, Wash., taken over by the Government on a mortgage, has been sold to David Rogers. It was learned at the Shipping Board yesterday. While the price was not stated, Rogers announced some time ago that he had offered $3,400,000 for the plant.

POKER PLAYERS FREED.

"Not Disorderly Conduct," Rules Magistrate Levine.

Fifteen men arrested in a coffee house at No. 159 Forsyth Street, last night on charges of "disorderly conduct" were discharged by Magistrate Levine in the Essex Market court today. Detective Stern of the First Inspection District said the men were playing poker.

"That's not disorderly conduct," said the magistrate, "unless you can prove they disturbed the neighbors."

RAILROAD SHOPMEN QUIT.

Strike in Sympathy With the Striking Clerks.

PORTSMOUTH, O., April 2.—Eighteen hundred shopmen at the local Norfolk and Western terminals walked out here today in sympathy with the 150 clerks already out.

The men who went on strike today include car repairers, machinists, electricians, blacksmiths, pipe fitters, sheet metal workers and laborers.

Two Chinese Cleared in Opium Raid
Long Ping and Don Woy, two of the five Chinamen arrested Tuesday night when an alleged opium den in Division Street was raided, were discharged today by Magistrate Max S. Levine in the Essex Market Court, because the raiding party was unable to testify which of the Chinamen he saw smoking an opium pipe. The three other Chinamen waived examination and were held in $1,000 bail for Special Sessions.

Distributors for Greater New York.

MEN'S CLOTHES LOGIC

A CAREFUL comparison of prices now being asked by the leading clothiers and merchant tailors of New York—for the same class of merchandise we are selling—will quickly convince the skeptical that we are retailing garments at a saving of $10.00 to $15.00.

This fact becomes an accomplishment merely as the result of retailing from our Wholesale Headquarters, where all overhead expenses are eliminated.
